Dog Showmanship Criteria

- Presentation of Handler: A neat overall picture should be presented to the judge. A complete uniform is recommended.
- Knowledge: Exhibitors should be able to answer questions regarding feeding, grooming, etc. and be knowledgeable about the parts of the dog.
- Presentation of Dog: This part is self-explanatory.
- Condition: Teeth should be clean and white. Look inside the ears and make sure exhibitor has taken a rag and cleaned the dirt out. The eyes are not to be runny, as the exhibitor should have cleaned them off.
- Body & Coat: The important emphasis is that the dog has been well groomed and has had a bath. All dogs should be groomed to meet Breed Standards` the nails should be trimmed.
- Group Showing: Award them points by how well they do against each other in a group. You can award the most points to the best exhibitor and so on down the line to last place. Or you can give the same amount to one or two exhibitors. Another important item is keeping the dog between the exhibitor and the judge. They should not stand in one place while the judge moves around them.

Small Animal Master Showmanship

The 1st place winner of each of the classes will be given the opportunity to compete in the Small Animal Master Showmanship Contest. Each Specie contest winner must declare to the Livestock Office his or her intension of the competitions. If their intentions are not declared, the Livestock Office will offer the next placed specie contestant the opportunity to compete in Small Animal Master Showmanship Contest.
